Try these hacks to take great photos on your iPhone

- Use the rule of thirds – make sure your subject is lined up on the third line versus the centre of your shot
- Don't use the flash – unless it's really dark, keep the flash off as it reduces the quality of the photo
- Make sure you focus - avoid blurry photos by clicking and holding the screen where you want the camera to focus
- Get the best lighting possible – natural light is always better than artificial light, try to get as much natural light as possible. If you're outside, try to have the sunshine 45 degrees behind your subject

Camping Tips & Hacks

If you're going camping this holiday season, try these camping hacks

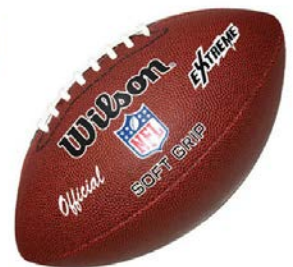

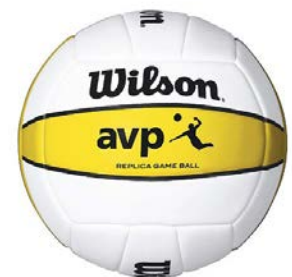

- Nylon rope and duct tape are a must pack - rope can be used for anything from supporting your tent to hanging up clothes while duct tape can be used to fix just about anything!
- Use sage as a mosquito repellent, put some in your campfire and the smell will ward off mosquitos
- Use a small waterproof container to hold matches and glue. Add sandpaper to the top so you can strike matches anywhere
- Use glowsticks as nightlights, they provide just enough light in your tent that isn't too bright for sleeping and they're a fun alternative
- Keep the kids entertained with a Camping Bingo Scavenger Hunt - write it on a paper bag so they can collect items as they go

SLOW COOKED LAMB SHANKS

314,000
POINTS

Le Creuset Round
Casserole 24cm

Total cook time:
3 ½ hours

INGREDIENTS

2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
4 lamb shanks trimmed
1 large white onion finely diced
3 cloves garlic minced
1 cup carrot finely diced
1 celery finely diced
1 pinch coarse salt and freshly ground pepper
1/4 cup flour
2 cups beef stock
1 1/2 cups red wine
400g passata
2 tablespoons tomato paste
2 beef stock cubes crushed
1 teaspoon fresh rosemary finely chopped
2 tablespoons fresh parsley finely chopped
2 bay leaves
Salt and pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 180°C.
2. Wash and pat dry lamb shanks with paper towel, sprinkle with salt and pepper.
3. Heat 1 tablespoon of oil in a pot over medium-high heat. Sear 2 shanks in the hot oil and brown on all sides. Repeat with remaining shanks and oil. Set aside and keep warm.
4. Sauté the carrots, celery and diced onions until softened in the pan for about 3 minutes. Add garlic and cook for 1 minute.
5. Return the shanks back into the pot; season with 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon ground pepper. Sprinkle with flour, toss well and cook for 4-5 minutes to brown the flour.
6. Add stock, wine, passata, tomato paste and herbs. Bring to a simmer on the stove.
7. Cover and transfer to oven and cook for 2 1/2 hours, or until the meat is fall apart tender (adjust the heat so that the liquid simmers very slowly).
8. Gently transfer the shanks onto a plate and keep warm.
9. Discard the bay leaves from the sauce and place pot onto stove. Simmer sauce over medium heat until thickened to your desired consistency.
10. Taste for seasoning and adjust salt and pepper, if desired. Add the shanks back into the pot of sauce.
11. Garnish with parsley and on a bed of creamy mashed potato with a side of peas or sautéed spinach.
